April 23, 2024 - Mandy Tam-Luk - Building Artists Bios and Statements

'Artist Bio and Statement Workshop' by Mandy Tam-Luk

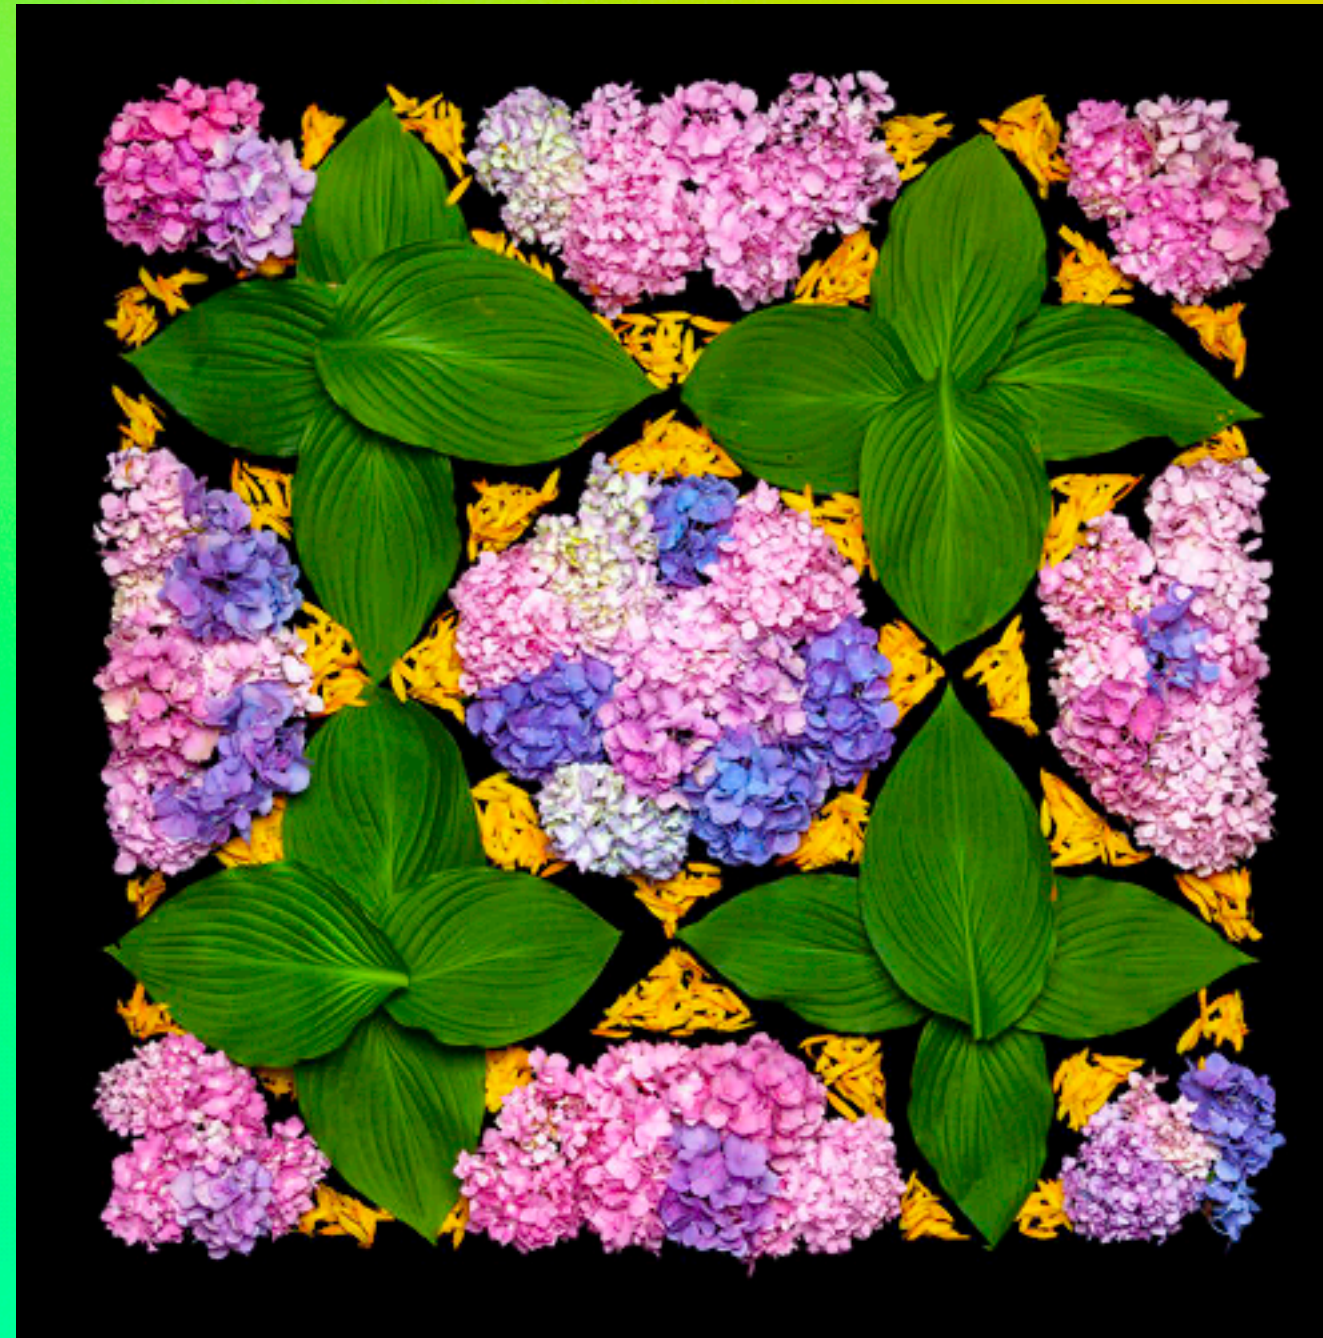

Looking for tips to compose an artist bio and statement for your next Art Exhibit application or media post?

You are invited to a discussion on how to communicate what moves you as an artist and engage your target audience.

This interactive workshop will illustrate the fundamentals through examples and self-exploratory exercises.

May 28, 2024 - Danny Custodio - Applying for government Individual Artist Grants

Local photo-based artist Danny Custodio will introduce us to funding opportunities to create and display your work. Custodio will share his experience with applying for grants through the Cultural Investment Program - St. Catharines, Ontario Arts Council, and Canada Council for the Arts. Find out ways to support your art practice with a creation grant or exhibition assistance grant.

Danny Custodio is a practicing mid-career photo-based artist born in Toronto, ON now based in St. Catharines. His artistic work is about understanding and exploring cultural traditions, from the centrality of immigrant manual labour to faith-based cultural practices through the lens of a first-generation Canadian born to an immigrant family, and how those cultural traditions can be adapted and re-created outside of their regional specificity. His work is a unique glimpse into the personal and artistic processes of incorporating family connection and cultural heritage into a life in Canada.
